

Geometry of Harmonic Maps

Vladimir Marković

Senior Research Fellow at All Souls, Mathematical Institute, University of Oxford
e-mail: markovic@maths.ox.ac.uk

Abstract. Harmonic maps between manifolds play a prominent role in geometry. In the finite volume they can be constructed as limits of heat flows. In this talk I will consider the non-compact case where the heat flow methods do not work so well. I will state and discuss basic existence and uniqueness results including the recent solution of the Schoen conjecture.